

There is more to life than work - quotes divided into halves

Personalities are not formed by beautiful speeches,

- but by hard work and dedication. (Albert Einstein)

One should never have so much to do,

- that one has no time left to think. (Georg Christoph Lichtenberg)

Choose a job you love,

- and you will never have to work a day in your life. (Confucius)

Some people mistake a busy appointment calendar

- for a fulfilled life. (Gerhard Uhlenbruck)

Time is not money. But

- for some people, money takes time, and for others, time takes money. (Ron Kritzfeld)

Work for work's sake

- is against human nature. (John Locke)

Managerial sickness: an epidemic

- caused by the clock hand and transmitted via the appointment calendar. (John Steinbeck)

I'd rather cycle to the beach

- than drive to work. (anonymous)

Anyone who can celebrate,

- can also work. (anonymous)

Even entertainment is work here,

- they spit in their hands at the start and expect to get something in return. (Kurt Tucholsky)

Having lost sight of our goals,

- we redouble our efforts. (Mark Twain)

The more enjoyment you get out of your work,

- the more money you will make. (Mark Twain)

As soon as I stop working,

- I feel that I am sinking down, down. (Virginia Woolf)

There is more to life

- than work. (anonymous)

Actually I'm quite different,

- but I so rarely have time to show it. (Horvath)

Work is a

- source of health. (Carl Hilty)

Work is

- the best medicine. (anonymous)

Work spares us from three evils:

- boredom, vice and need. (Voltaire "Candide")

I hate everything that merely instructs me,

- without augmenting or directly invigorating my activity. (Goethe "Maxims and Reflexions")