

Value barometer

Exercise and discussion about social values

1. How did you feel when distributing the corn grains?
2. Did something about the result surprise you?
3. What reasons do you see behind the result?
4. Do you think the result would be different in a different context/at a different time?
5. What would a society look like if one of these values were at the center? What would be different from now?

1. How did you feel when distributing the corn grains?
2. Did something about the result surprise you?
3. What reasons do you see behind the result?
4. Do you think the result would be different in a different context/at a different time?
5. What would a society look like if one of these values were at the center? What would be different from now?

1. How did you feel when distributing the corn grains?
2. Did something about the result surprise you?
3. What reasons do you see behind

1. How did you feel when distributing the corn grains?
2. Did something about the result surprise you?
3. What reasons do you see behind the result?
4. Do you think the result would be different in a different context/at a different time?
5. What would a society look like if one of these values were at the center? What would be different from now?

1. How did you feel when distributing the corn grains?
2. Did something about the result surprise you?
3. What reasons do you see behind the result?
4. Do you think the result would be different in a different context/at a different time?
5. What would a society look like if one of these values were at the center? What would be different from now?

1. How did you feel when distributing the corn grains?
2. Did something about the result surprise you?
3. What reasons do you see behind

Questions for small groups

Value barometer

Exercise and discussion about social values

the result?

4. Do you think the result would be different in a different context/at a different time?
5. What would a society look like if one of these values were at the center? What would be different from now?

1. How did you feel when distributing the corn grains?
2. Did something about the result surprise you?
3. What reasons do you see behind the result?
4. Do you think the result would be different in a different context/at a different time?
5. What would a society look like if one of these values were at the center? What would be different from now?

REFLECTION

the result?

4. Do you think the result would be different in a different context/at a different time?
5. What would a society look like if one of these values were at the center? What would be different from now?

1. How did you feel when distributing the corn grains?
2. Did something about the result surprise you?
3. What reasons do you see behind the result?
4. Do you think the result would be different in a different context/at a different time?
5. What would a society look like if one of these values were at the center? What would be different from now?

